

Darwin Symphony Orchestra Incorporated Application for 2023 Membership

Darwin Symphony Orchestra (DSO) is a leading cultural organisation in the Northern Territory and its only symphony orchestra. Based in Darwin, DSO is recognised as a centre for artistic growth and excellence and aims to present and promote inspirational orchestral music to local, national and international audiences.

To apply to become a member of the Association a person must –

- Submit a written application for membership to the Board using this form (it must be signed by you), and;
- Be proposed by one member (member must sign); and
- If you are a body corporate, include the nomination of a natural person as your representative.

Please note that to be eligible to apply to become a Player Member you must also be appointed by the Artistic Director as a player in the Orchestra.

Once your membership has been approved, please fill out our online payment form to finalize your membership. Fees for DSO membership are for a calendar year. You can renew your membership without having to reapply.
